Flemington PS Classroom Helpers and Volunteers Handbook

Research has shown that parents who take an active role in their child's school life increase their child's ability to learn and have a positive effect on academic achievement.

At Flemington Primary we encourage parents to actively support student learning by becoming involved in a range of school and classroom activities and greatly appreciate the parents and community members who assist and support our programs.

Programs and activities may include:

- Listening to students read.
- Supporting class activities such as cooking, arts and crafts etc.
- Attending excursions and camps.
- Providing administrative support, such as laminating teaching aids and covering library books.
- Supporting fundraising activities.
- Participating in school activities such as Book Week, open mornings, classroom celebrations.
- Joining the HUB and School Council.

Classroom Helpers and Volunteer Workers

When parents/carers assist with school programs they are classed as volunteers working at the school.

Any person whose duties usually involve or are likely to involve work in a school (paid or unpaid) is considered to be engaged in 'child-related work' and must be compliant with the Working with Children Act 2005 (the Act). www.austlii.edu.au/au/legis/vic/consol_act/.

A duty of care applies while students are under the care of the school. This duty applies equally to school based activities and out of school activities. The same duty of care applies to employees and volunteers who assist at the school.

Classroom helpers/staff support/volunteer workers are expected to assist the programs within the following guidelines:

- Treat all students in a positive, impartial and fair manner.
- Work under the direction of the teacher who is responsible for the class or group of children.
- Refer any behavior management issues to the classroom teacher, as he/she will then determine what course of action is to be followed.
- Operate within professional standards and confidentiality. Classroom helpers are in a position of trust and should not discuss with other parents, adults or children any personal information about students, staff or other classroom helpers learnt whilst involved in school programs.
- Obtain a Working with Children check for volunteers, as they are considered to be engaged in 'child-related work' and must be compliant with the Working with Children Act 2005.
- Be willing to assist all children or group of children within the classroom. This could mean that you may not always work with your child.

Code of Conduct

At Flemington Primary we have high expectations of our Parent Community. We expect all parents will:

- ☒ Promote a positive attitude towards learning.

If you have any question please ask the teacher.

Frequently Asked Questions and Answers

What name do the children use when addressing parent helpers in the classroom?

It depends, some parents like to be called by their first name (Mary, Peter,..) while others prefer to be addressed using their formal name (Mrs Brown, Mr White.). The class teacher will normally discuss this with you. Whichever name is chosen, the most important factor is that the children speak to you with respect.

Where can I apply for a Working With Children Check, and how much does it cost?

Applications for a working with children's check can be made at the local post office or online at <http://www.workingwithchildren.vic.gov.au>. Applicants need to supply a passport photo with their application. There is no cost for a Working With Children Check for volunteers.

Although it may take several weeks for a Working With Children check to be processed, parents are able to be parent helpers once they have a receipt for their Working With Children check.

What do I need to do when I arrive at school as a classroom helper/volunteer?

All visitors to Flemington Primary are asked to sign in at the office. You will be given a Flemington Primary lanyard to wear. Please sign out again when you leave school.

Can I bring my toddler / baby with me when I help out in my child's class?

We ask that classroom helpers /volunteers make alternative arrangements for their toddlers and babies so that our students can have your full attention and support. This will allow you and our students to maximise on their learning without distractions.

What is the usual time commitment for classroom helpers/volunteers in the classroom?

Individual class teachers and parent helpers jointly organise the time and type of support that best suits both parties. Parent helpers who listen to students read usually come weekly for an hour in the morning, but this can vary depending on your availability and the class program.

What do I do if I'm unable to make it to my arranged time?

Class teachers appreciate it if you can let them know if you won't be available. Either jot a brief note and send it in with your child, send a Dojo message to your child's teacher or phone the school office Ph:9376 7137 and leave a message. Teachers understand that there are times when your routine will change.

I noticed that my friend's child is having a lot of trouble in reading. Should I talk to my friend about this?

As a classroom helper in the classroom you will see the various strengths and areas of need of all the students in the class. It is important that you respect each child's ability and confidentiality and if you have any concerns talk to the class teacher about them.

The classroom that I help out in is quite noisy at times. When I went to school the students worked in silence. Is it OK to have a noisy classroom?

Classrooms have changed a great deal since our school days. Students have many opportunities to work with other students, talk and discuss their learning. The teacher will monitor noise levels in the classroom to ensure they are suitable for the activity being undertaken at the time.

Who is responsible for classroom management in the classroom?

The classroom teacher is always responsible for classroom management. If you are assisting in a small group or individual situation and a student is behaving inappropriately, advise the classroom teacher. It is important for the students to know that the teacher is responsible for behaviour.

What if it is my child who is behaving inappropriately?

This is always a sensitive area. Some students react differently when their mum or dad are in the room. If possible, advise the classroom teacher at the time. If this behaviour continues speak to the classroom teacher out of class time to decide on the best course of action.

I can't help on a weekly basis but I would like to come into the classroom when I have odd days off work. Is this possible?

Our students thrive on consistency. If you are unable to commit to a weekly or fortnightly time slot then you may still volunteer for excursions and other events but not as a reading helper in the classroom.

I have noticed that children are on different reading levels. What do they mean? I would like my child to move up a few levels should I see their teacher?

Reading levels are a tool the teachers use to match a child to a book that is most appropriate for their instructional learning. There are many factors that go into determining a student's level. Comprehension is one of the most important elements. When students can read a book they also need to be able to understand what they have read. Home readers should be at an easier level than what they read in the classroom.

If you have any concerns or questions about readers you should make a time to meet with your child's class teacher

I would like to volunteer in the classroom but can't attend the classroom helper workshop. Can I still be a classroom helper?

The workshop aims to provide helpers with the skills to purposefully read with students and best support within the classroom. We are providing two workshop dates and have communicated the dates in advance to allow classroom helpers to make plans to ensure they can attend. If you are unable to attend a workshop you may volunteer during excursions and other events but not as a reading helper.
